DOING BUSINESS AT THE COMMONWEALTH BUSINESS FORUM 2009

The Commonwealth Business Forum will feature, for the second consecutive year, The B2B Project Exchange Centre, which enables you to meet with investors, investment bankers and other eminent advisers, so you can discuss private investment proposals and public sector tender projects that is best suited for you and your business requirements, in an informal yet business-like environment.

The B2B Project Exchange Centre will include:

- Project exchange lounge for one-to-one meetings between project holders and potential investors
- Short profiles of project holders and investors searchable by countries, sectors and companies
- Online project book and summaries to include business plans and specific requirements
- Exhibition Centre and Breakout Sessions to showcase countries, key sectors, products and services
- Site visits to key projects in Trinidad and Tobago on 27th November (TBC)

JOINING A GLOBAL NETWORK FOR THE 60TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE MODERN COMMONWEALTH

For the 60th Anniversary of the modern Commonwealth, which coincides with this November's CHOGM 2009, the Commonwealth Business Forum 2009 will bring together business leaders and a wide range of financial experts, investors, management consultants, government and development agency officials with an interest in practical business networking at the highest levels, or simply looking to access finance, business insight and new markets to improve their competitiveness.

WHY SHOULD YOU ATTEND?

This is a unique opportunity for both SMEs and MNCs or TNCs to establish strong business partnerships and explore investment opportunities in key sectors such as:

- International trade and investment, financial services,
- ICT and the development of knowledge-based industries,
- Agriculture – to include fishing and forestry,
- Tourism and eco tourism,
- Energy and extractive industry including alternative energy,
- Manufacturing and exports, transport and logistics
- Creative industries

THE COMMONWEALTH BUSINESS COUNCIL

The Commonwealth Business Council was created by Commonwealth Heads of Government at their meeting in Edinburgh in 1997 as a private sector arm of the modern Commonwealth – the second largest trade bloc in the world – to promote trade and investment among these countries. It is an interface between governments and the private sector, emerging markets and developed markets and between international business and small and medium businesses. Our main areas of focus include promotion of global trade in Commonwealth countries

CBC Vision

Sharing Global prosperity by shaping globalization with equity

CBC Mission

Enable vibrant business-government dialogue to help Commonwealth countries modernise and become more open – politically and economically

CBC Brand proposition

A trusted partner and impartial facilitator to bring businesses and government together for mutual benefits within the Commonwealth and beyond
